

Rabix Labs

Work From Home (WFH) Policy

Version: 1.0

Department: Human Resources (HR)

1. Purpose:

The Work From Home (WFH) Policy provides guidelines for employees who are approved to work remotely while maintaining productivity, security, and effective communication.

2. Eligibility:

- Full-time employees may be eligible for remote work based on their job role.
- WFH requires approval from the employee's manager.
- Some positions may require employees to work from the office regularly.

3. Working Hours:

- Employees must follow their assigned working hours.
- Availability during office hours is mandatory.
- Any changes to the schedule must be approved by the manager.

4. Communication:

Employees must:

- Stay active on Microsoft Teams or Slack during working hours.
- Respond to emails and messages promptly.
- Attend all scheduled meetings on time.

5. Performance Expectations:

Employees working remotely are expected to:

- Complete assigned tasks on time.
- Meet project deadlines.
- Maintain the same level of productivity as office-based employees.
- Report daily or weekly progress as required.

6. Equipment and Internet:

- Employees are responsible for maintaining a stable internet connection.
- Company-issued laptops and equipment should be used only for work purposes.
- Employees must immediately report any technical issues.

7. Data Security:

Employees must:

- Use company-approved software and VPN when required.
- Keep confidential company information secure.
- Never share company data with unauthorized individuals.
- Lock their computer when away from the workspace.

8. Attendance:

- Employees must inform their manager if they are unable to work due to illness or emergencies.
- Unplanned absences should be reported as soon as possible.

9. Health and Safety:

Employees should maintain a safe, quiet, and professional workspace that supports productive work.

10. Policy Violations:

Failure to comply with this policy may result in the suspension of WFH privileges or other disciplinary action.

11. Contact:

For any questions regarding the Work From Home Policy, contact:

Human Resources Department

Email: hr@rabixlabs.com